

Read My Picture

?

twinkl

twinkl
Quality Standard
Approved

Which picture will we be reading today?

Photo courtesy of 22612(@pixabay.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

Vocabulary Victor wants to know...

Which adverb could you use to describe how the crowd are looking upwards?

Rex Retriever wants to know...

What equipment are people using to record the event?

Summarising Sheba wants to know...

Can you sum up what is happening in the picture in 15 words or less?

Inference Iggy wants to know...

What might the crowd be looking at?

Predicting Pip wants to know...

What do you think the people will do next with the photographs and videos they take?

Cassie the Commentator wants to know...

Describe an event you have been to which had a large crowd.

Arlo the Author wants to know...

Can you think of another adjective you could use to describe the scene which means the same as 'crowded'?

I could use the adverb excitedly to describe how the crowd are looking upwards.

People are using their mobile phones to record the event.

A crowd of people are looking at something unknown and interesting in the sky.

The crowd may be watching the launch of a rocket or looking at a flying object.

I think they will share them with their family and friends to show them what they have seen.

I once went to a concert. There were a lot of people there and we stood in a crowd like the one in the picture.

I could use the adjectives 'packed' or 'congested' to describe the scene.

